Changes everyday...

Three pigs for the revised Express for highways 287 around Boise City are set at 49 feet deep. Behind them can be seen the outline of the on-ramp. Those being built will go down twice as far to accommodate the overpass over the highway. An ODOT spokesman said the south project will take 240 days to complete and the north project near the Heritage Center, will take 276 days, will be included in the movement of 500,000 cubic yards of dirt.
